Re: Consultation on Red Binder changes

Proposed revisions to the Red Binder, the campus Academic Personnel policy and procedure manual, are now available for review and comment. The “Summary of Draft Changes” included below and posted along with the draft sections will provide you with information about each proposed change. Within the documents changes are shaded; additions are marked in italics and deletions in strike-through.

The majority of the changes related to an effort to differentiate between employment and affiliations for individuals on campus who are engaged in research. The changes bring campus practice into line with system-wide standards and policies. A matrix of the various without salary alternatives is included with the draft Red Binder sections as an additional resource.

The draft changes may be viewed on the Academic Personnel web-site at https://ap.ucsb.edu/policies.and.procedures/red.binder/drafts/ . The link is not displayed publicly; please either link directly from this e-mail or cut and paste the address into your browser.

Please forward this notice on to other non-senate academic employees within your unit as appropriate. I would appreciate receiving feedback by January 19, 2018.

Comments may be e-mailed to my attention at Cindy.Doherty@ucsb.edu
