Re: Final Review of Proposed Academic Personnel Manual (APM) revised policy

Office of the President has provided the following draft Academic Personnel Manual (APM) Policy for final review. Final review is intended to advise the results of the Systemwide Review and how language has been refined. Substantive revisions are not anticipated during final review. The following section is currently under final review:

- APM- 210-1 (d): Review and Appraisal Committees: The policy is intended to address evaluation of contributions to diversity in merit and promotion reviews. The proposed changes in this Final Review version result from new input identified in Systemwide Review, specifically input from the Academic Senate.

The draft policy, as well as a redlined version, the transmission letter from Vice Provost Susan Carlson, and the documentation from the Academic Senate may be accessed online via the Office of the President Academic Personnel site under the "Final Review" tab at <http://www.ucop.edu/academic-personnel/academic-personnel-policy/policies-under-review/index.html>.
