Re: Fall Academic Personnel Newsletter

The Fall 2015 edition of the Academic Personnel Newsletter is now available. The newsletter is published quarterly and is available on the Academic Personnel web site under the "News and Announcements" tab. You may also access the Newsletter directly at <https://ap.ucsb.edu/news.and.announcements/newsletters/> .

The current edition highlights this year's winners of the Hellman Family Foundation Fellowships and Career Development Awards and also provides updates on a variety of activities that impact faculty and other academic employees.

Please feel free to forward this notice to others in your department who may be interested.

Your feedback and suggestions for future topics are welcome and may be sent to Karen Moreno at karen.moreno@ucsb.edu
